AUTUMN NEWS FROM THE MONASTIC PEWS

SEPTEMBER 2010

LETTER FROM MOTHER OLIVEA:

Dearest Friends,

I am writing this at the beginning of the August Bank Holiday week-end, and wondering if you are planning special "outings" or relaxing at home to avoid the traffic !! Whatever you do, I hope you will find some peace and blessing. Since my last communication I have been busy with preparing a Wedding Service; hospital visiting; dressmaking; church duties; studying; deciding how to entertain guests at another wedding; meditating ; having happy times with friends; planning future work laughing and crying and trying new recipes; ( The Inland Revenue can wait).....wondering the while, if I am neglecting my "spiritual" development ! But then, I was reminded that it isn't our activities that hamper us;... it is our attachment to the outcome of our efforts.; attachment not only distracts us from our relationship with God, ( and each other ) but it denies Unity... the Oneness we seek; it delays the Integration which is a great part of our purpose; Attachment can be subtle; we can be attached not only to the symbolic and transitory things that arise from our need to make something lasting from experiences which are, by their nature, forever coming and going,... (that's distracting enough.. )but more than this, we can become attached to OUR ideas of what is spiritual, OUR idea of Who God Is and What God Wants; of what is a "spiritual" interest or activity and what isn't ; of where God can be encountered and where absent; we can even become attached to OUR idea of Not being attached. Help ! ( I recommend a pause here..... possibly.. a cup of tea ) .....There! That's better. Let's start again. It is the nature of curiosity to examine things in depth; to take apart their components and try to understand how they fit together; how they "work" .Which is all very well, but this method cannot be applied to the Mysteries of God . ( A parallel might be the disconcerting difference between Molecular Physics ) ( Newton etc., ) and Nuclear Physics; ( All the familiar Rules don't work in the latter ! ) Spiritual realities cannot be truly or wholly grasped by anything other than Spirit; certainly not filtered through our brains working like computers, on a "yes/no" system, wonderful though they be in dimensions governed by duality! We may awake to spiritual truth when we have discarded ( if only for a moment ) our analytical baggage and exist as pure consciousness... i.e. LOVE.

Perhaps you have enjoyed looking into holograms ? (If you haven't , look at a bank-note ! ) One of their amazing attributes is that no matter how they may be cut up into fragments, the whole of the original picture remains.... smaller and smaller replicas of the first image; One of the mysteries of Light.

So, my reflections began to come together . God is One. All existence is ultimately One; Past ,present and future are ultimately One. We come from, live within, and return ultimately to God.

For the period(s) of our embodied awakening i.e. Lives, we experience individuality, time-lines and separation and mortality. Because we have largely forgotten Who we are, the Great Oneness becomes the Scary Unknown, the empty void, rather than the glorious No-Separate-Thing -Void that is All.

If we can , through Love, perceive everything, however ephemeral, Everything ...as a manifestation of the Divine (Love), and be Attached only to God, we can Integrate every part of our experience; all creation, all consciousness , every feeling, every thought , every act into Unity.

All Good will flow from this; an affirmative morality, without fear or rejection; A cosmos in which we can never get lost. A whole-hearted Living, wherein the solar-system, the flower, the mountain and the wren, the familiar face and the beloved memory , the music and the sky are forever One .

With fond love and blessings,

Mother Olivea.

MESSAGE FROM BROTHER SEAN

Autumn is such a beautiful season don't you agree? There are two seasons in the Cathedral of our beloved Father Mother God that really empower my heart to 'Behold-Enfold-Hold and Listen' to Mother Earth and her disciples. They are spring and autumn. Why? Because my heart resonates that for the soul to rebirth, it needs to restock and re-evaluate where I am in my faith journey to God.

For seasonal re-birthing and restocking of our spiritual lives, we seriously need to take on board the wisdom of the indigenous Mayans in their prophetic vision for 2012. The recent webinar which I did last Saturday about the Indigenous Mayans and their eclectic spirituality now closely linked with that of Francis and the Essenes of Mt Sinai, as soon as I was reading my notes, I got a huge kick in my monastic proverbial to stop and reflect on the text. Here I was reading about an incredibly gifted people who lived 5000 years ago and what they foretold about the negative energies we are all facing as we leave the Fourth House of the Sun towards the Fifth House of the Sun, it then hit me right in my solar plexus. A note about how the interim stages are affecting all of us is 'soul entrapment' from the subtle impact of 'GREED- MATERIALISM-.' These are the tools used by the ANTICHRIST to leave the soul spiritually impoverished, confused and discarded. On 17th March (St Paddy's Day) Archangel Metatron channeled a specific painting for me which said, To Sean Jude Bradley to go and heal souls broken by man's inhumanity towards one's fellow man.' This is what the indigenous Mayans advise us all to do as we face the vitriolic attack from dark energies today! As one who is now living the cloistered life from my own little monastery without walls, I regularly see the face of the antichrist and his distractions are not always about 'come and enjoy a dish of strawberries and double clotted cream (ha) or love and joy but more about 'look at yourself and see what an evil B you are and how dare you pretend to be what you are not or can never become so self destruct your soul now!' Need I say anymore to reassure you? The need to get off the treadmill and take personal responsibility for your spiritual path has to begin with, 'as a child of God/Source, I am worthy as a co creator of Source.' We have to stop blaming others for our lack of information and begin to walk that solitary path without the comforts from others who say, 'Ah Jasus, (Irish version of Jesus) your marvelous so why bother to rise early to fast, pray and reawaken the Divine within?'

After the 1 hour webinar live broadcast, my heartfelt response was that of instant release! I knew intuitively that St Francis's vision for this hedonistic and materialistic corrupt generation was for real and our way out to Nirvana. Just like Noah's Ark, here we are being given a spiritual lifeline to embrace a way of life which is all encompassing by embracing an ancient spirituality that is eclectic. It reawakens the spirituality of the Therapeutia Essenes of Mount Sinai/Red Sea with that of the indigenous Mayans and Inner Faith Franciscan Spiritualities.

From last Saturday's in depth account of soul searching for truth, I was instructed by St Francis to revise the Miracles of the Tree of Life course and add further instructions given by the Mayans to help us remain grounded, protected and safeguarded from the onslaught of the antichrist. Please don't be fooled into thinking that he is a fictitious character in a fairy tale story book. The antichrist is real and he even penetrates communities like ours. Oh, yes he does and boy can he create mayhem and disillusionment with the fat cats with huge egos. He leaves no stone unturned to seek the vulnerable or what I label, 'the doubting Thomas's.' The recent webinar about the Mayans and their take on 21st December 2012 is now underpinned by clear instructions from Lord Kutumi and the Cosmic Christ bringing new life to the Mayans prophecies and their Tree of Life with the same Tree of Life connected with Franciscan and Essenic spirituality. In fact, it is all part of the revised course, 'Miracles of the Tree of Life. Check here for more details on the website: <http://www.monasteryofsaintfrancis.com/Online-Courses.html>

Taking on board the clear guidance from the Mayans, Essenes and Saint Francis for fostering closer communities where small groups are nurturing the Light, I have been given additional guidance from above about setting up a 'virtual lay monastic presence' by bringing the daily prayer life from our monastery into one's living room-their own monastery without walls. Since early August, I have been providing live recordings of the Daily Morning and Evening Prayers of the Tau Community as well as 2 live webinars at the weekend. At times I somehow feel like our soul brother. Remember him with the pointed finger facing the galaxy saying, 'ET come home?' Well I was beginning to feel like ET until I was joined by our Brother Kedar in New York, Sister Sheila in Dublin and our beautiful Sister Nirmala in Zurich. So, do please feel free to join me each morning around 9am and 8.30pm by clicking on the following link. <http://www.livestream.com/brothersean>

To celebrate the Feast of the Archangels, I am launching a new 'virtual livestream TV studio which will provide live coverage of my daily prayer routine starting from 08.30am GMT (09.30 CET). The live recordings will cover the following recordings from 29th September 2010. They are:

- 08.30am: Morning Prayer- Divine Office of Lauds
- 12.00 noon: The Angelus
- 3.00pm: The Rosary Prayer to the Divine Feminine
- 6.00pm: The Angelus
- 8.30pm: Evening Prayer –Divine Office of Vespers
- 11.30pm: Night vigil of Prayer-Medication –sacred music and daily reflection for new day.
- 12.30am End of daily devotions

If you are alone, bored or in need of spiritual solace, then why not click on the link and come into the virtual monastery where we will support one another.

So, do synchronize your spirit's alarm clock and wall planners to help me celebrate the Feast of the Archangels on 29th September 2010 when we launch 'Brother Sean's Prayers' on livestream studio.
